Every Man's Battle: Winning the War on Sexual Temptation One Victory at a Time.
Stephen Arterburn & Fred Stoeker. Colorado Springs.
WaterBrook Press. 2000.

No man is unaffected by the tsunami of sexual temptation that is flooding our culture today. Sexual images bombard us everywhere we look: television, the internet, billboards, bookstores, magazine stands... not to mention the plunging neckline of the woman sitting next to us in church! The battle is daily. The stakes are high. The casualties are many. Is sexual purity possible in such an impure world?

Arterburn and Stoeker have done an incalculable service by offering a book that gives us all permission to talk about what is so very difficult to talk about. Every Man's Battle not only reminds us of the reality of the conflict around us. It reminds us that the Gospel of Jesus Christ makes it possible for men to control their wandering thoughts and their roving eyes and live lives that are blameless and pure! The book is full of testimonies of men who have escaped the bondage of sexual sin. Further, the authors offer a practical plan for any man who desires victory and freedom. For the Christian, the real question is not How far can I go and still be called a Christian? but rather How holy can I be? This book is an excellent resource for the man who has fallen in the past, the one who struggles in the present and the one who wants to remain pure in the future.
